

Emerging Growth and Early Stage Financing

Founders, companies and investors involved in emerging growth and early-stage companies have very specific legal needs, which change significantly as the business grows. These companies often grow rapidly, with financial issues and tight budgets consistently at the front of mind. Moroğlu Arseven provides a full range of legal and strategic services, assisting clients through all stages of business development and investments by providing practical, responsive and cost-effective legal guidance.

Moroğlu Arseven carefully tailors its services to ensure clients receive an appropriate level of legal support for their development stage, reducing associated legal costs and complications as far as possible. We focus on providing clients with only what they need, at the moment they need it, while simultaneously establishing a stable and scalable legal platform to grow their business.

Our clients represent all points of view in the emerging growth and early-stage eco-system, including founders, young companies, entrepreneurs, angel investors, crowdfunding platforms, business incubators and investor networks, as well as major investment funds, managers or other institutional financiers. Moroğlu Arseven has been actively involved in supporting and shaping the Turkish start-up and entrepreneurship sector through our support to some influential investor-side clients.

Our experience working with such a wide range of clients means Moroğlu Arseven offers focused due diligence assistance during capital raising, as well as insightful strategic advice and negotiation support. We collaborate closely with clients to understand their business aims to ensure we develop the necessary legal, organisational and finance structures. We have particular experience advising on legal viability, corporate governance and regulatory compliance, as well as developing clear-cut term sheets and financing agreements. These documents support all parties to foresee and prevent potential misunderstandings or disputes.

The firm regularly advises on how to avoid common legal obstacles which young companies or their investors experience during establishment, financing, or developing and launching products. For instance, navigating the complicated processes to obtain participation licenses which allow angel investors to access tax advantages and incentives.

Moroğlu Arseven is actively involved in mentoring young businesses to develop awareness of legal perspectives. We help with both legal and strategic planning, including assisting young companies to identify their legal strengths, weaknesses and associated strategies. Our active engagement aims to prepare young companies for future growth and development from a legal perspective.
