28 Aug 2018

I??k Özdo?an has been recognised as one of the world's Top 250 Women in IP by Managing IP in its 2018 edition, receiving the award for the third year in a row. In 2018, Managing IP recognises six of the firm's lawyers by name. Partners, I??k Özdo?an, Gökçe ?zgi and Ezgi Baklac? Güllökar are all recognised across both trademark and patent matters. Managing IP's researchers also described Senior Associates Yonca Çelebi and Ece Berkman as "rising stars to watch" for trademarks, while Associate Merve Alt?nay is a "rising star" in the patent context.

Managing IP continues to recognise Moro?lu Arseven as a firm in 2018, ranking it in Tier 2 for both contentious trademarks, as well as for trademark prosecution. It also ranks Moro?lu Arseven in Tier 4 for contentious patents, as well as notes the firm as Recommended for copyrights.

One trademark client commented to Managing IP that Moro?lu Arseven "is very responsive and organized", going on to note that "I can count on them to get the job done." A patent client described Moro?lu Arseven as an "outstanding law firm".

Managing IP conducts annual research into intellectual property law firms, producing rankings for trademark, patent and copyright categories. During the research, Managing IP identifies and recognises leading individuals as IP Stars. It then selects the Top 250 Women in IP from the broader pool of IP Stars.

The research includes over 80 jurisdictions worldwide. More information about Managing IP and IP Stars can be found on Managing Intellectual Property's website. The Top 250 Women in IP rankings can be found here.
