

Moroğlu Arseven and three Team Members Recognised for Litigation and Transactions by IAM Patent 1000 in 2018 Awards

18 Jun 2018

Moroğlu Arseven has been recognised in the Silver Tier firm for patent litigation and transactions by IAM Patent 1000 in its 2018 awards. The firm receives specific mention as being a specialist for clients which seek "a robust patent offering", as well as being a "shrewd broker for multinationals looking to formulate licensing agreements". Researchers note that Moroğlu Arseven is "in-demand among life sciences and pharmaceuticals outfits for its capacity in complex litigation."

IAM Patent 1000 also recognised three of the firm's partners individually. Işık Özdoğan, who leads Moroğlu Arseven's twelve attorney intellectual property team, is recognised in the Silver Tier for patent litigation and transactions. Fellow partners, Gökçe Şzgi and Ezgi Baklacı Güllökar, are both respectively recognised in the Bronze Tier.

Işık is described as "an IP warrior" who is "known for her numerous victories before the courts as well as her talent for portfolio management."

Researches noted that Ezgi stands out as a "force to be reckoned with in litigation", as well as "unflinching in prosecution and enforcement."

Gökçe is described as a "seasoned litigator whose specialisms cross technical borders", who serves clients for "both contentious and non-contentious patent work."

The annual IAM Patent 1000 awards identify market leading individuals and firms for various aspects of patent law and practice, located in more 48 jurisdictions around the world. More information about the IAM Patent 1000
