

Moroğlu Arseven Hosts Summit in Istanbul for the International Network of Boutique Law Firms

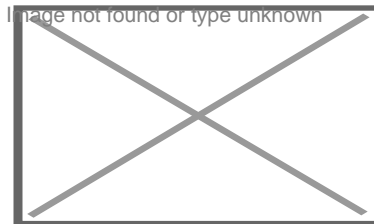

10 Apr 2011

Moroğlu Arseven hosted the Third Annual INBLF European Summit in Istanbul on April 8-11, 2011. Delegates from 19 law firms in Austria, Belgium, Canada, Cyprus, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Liechtenstein, The Netherlands, Poland, Spain, Turkey and the United States attended the Summit. Delegates at the summit built upon the information exchanged during the previous summits and discussed methods and strategies for continuing to implement the INBLF's joint business development strategy.

While in Istanbul, delegates also visited some of Istanbul's important historic sites, including the Grand Bazaar, Blue Mosque, Basilica Cistern and Hippodrom Square.

The INBLF is a network of highly credentialed, boutique law firms, located across North America, as well as in worldwide commercial centers. INBLF members are highly qualified and experienced senior attorneys who focus on client service and contact. North American members consist of top-ranked boutique law firms, each concentrating on one or two discrete areas of practice. The INBLF's international members are leading multi-discipline law firms which can assist clients on a range of issues. Moroğlu Arseven is the only Turkish member of the INBLF network. The INBLF was established in 2004 and since this time, members have stood ready to assist each other's clients, regardless of the subject matter or location.
