

Moroğlu Arseven and Işık Özdoğan Recognized by Managing Intellectual Property in 2014

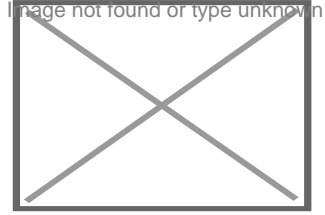

13 May 2014

Moroğlu Arseven has been ranked in tier 2 for contentious trademark and copyright work, as well as tier 4 for trademark prosecution by Managing Intellectual Property in its 2014 World IP Survey Handbook. Işık Özdoğan is recognized individually by Managing Intellectual Property in its 2014 IP Stars Handbook.

Describing the firm's IP team, one client told Managing Intellectual Property "Their responsiveness is superb. Every matter I have sent to them has come in at or under budget. I can send them a file and not worry about it." Another client noted the team is "excelling in a notorious jurisdiction".

Managing Intellectual Property noted that Işık is known for the personal attention she pays to clients. A client commented that Işık "is extremely responsive, providing strategic advice above and beyond the basic law. She is an efficient professional", going on to say he would "strongly recommended the firm to colleagues inside and outside my organisation".

Managing Intellectual Property publishes annual rankings of intellectual property law firms, including trademark, copyright and patent categories. The research includes over 80 jurisdictions worldwide. More information about the World IP Survey and IP Stars Handbooks can be found on Managing Intellectual Property's website.
