

Morođlu Arseven Ranked Once Again in Band 1 by Chambers and Partners Fintech Guide

9 Dec 2024

The prestigious Chambers and Partners has released its FinTech Guide rankings and we are proud to announce that Morođlu Arseven has been ranked once again in Band 1 in Türkiye!

The ranking is conducted by the rigorous and independent research team of Chambers and Partners and the following comments have been made by respondents regarding our firm:

"Besides legal competency and strength, Morođlu Arseven have know-how in technology, proactivity in business models and strategy building. They bring creativity as well as network strength."

"They are very active in investments, working with many start-ups and investors for infrastructure projects."

A special congratulations to our partner, Burcu Tuzcu Ersin, who has also been individually ranked repeatedly in Band 1, underscoring her exceptional leadership and expertise in the field. One respondent noted, "Burcu is strongly client-centric and has very professional communication and consultation skills" which highlights our unwavering dedication to client satisfaction and delivering top-tier legal services.

We are honored to have maintained this ranking for five consecutive years and remain committed to supporting innovation and excellence in the FinTech sector.

Thank you to our clients and peers for your continued trust and support.