

Moroğlu Arseven Recognized by Media Law International in 2016 Awards

19 Apr 2016

Media Law International had ranked Moroğlu Arseven in Tier 4 for Media law in its 2016 rankings. Media, entertainment and sport are long established practice areas at Moroğlu Arseven. The firm's expanding client-base includes performing artists, players, producers, coaches, media publishers, broadcasters, owners, ticketing agencies, venue management, as well as promotion and advertising companies.

Media Law International noted the firm's "broad range of matters", including the "emerging focus on internet and multimedia ventures" as well as "multi-disciplinary approach". The researchers went on to comment on the Moroğlu Arseven's range of work within this practice area, including "investments and tax planning, digital rights, online gaming and entertainment software."

Media Law International is a specialist guide to global leaders in Media law, across 52 jurisdictions. Its research is based on objective market analysis and focuses exclusively on media law. Complete information about Moroğlu Arseven's rankings can be viewed through on the Media Law International website.

Image not found or type unknown

