

Moroğlu Arseven and three Team Members Recognized for Litigation and Transactions by IAM Patent 1000 in 2017 Awards

15 Jun 2017

Moroğlu Arseven has been recognized in the Silver Tier firm for patent litigation and transactions by IAM Patent 1000 in its 2017 awards. The firm receives specific mention for being a "leading force in IP commercialisation, showcasing ingenuity and sure-footedness in transactional matters", as well as "hard fought disputes".

IAM Patent 1000 also recognized three of the firm's partners individually, the most individual recognitions for a single firm in this category. İpek Özdoğan, who leads Moroğlu Arseven's ten attorney intellectual property team, is recognized in the Silver Tier for patent litigation and transactions. Fellow partners, Gökçe Zengi and Ezgi Baklacı Güلكokar, are both respectively recognized in the Bronze Tier.

Based on its research of the Turkish legal market, IAM Patent 1000 noted that "[m]ultinationals flock to Moroğlu Arseven for its deft handling of all manner of patent briefs." It goes on to comment that "[w]hatever the instruction, Moroğlu's attentive practitioners devise bespoke solutions shaped to every contour of the client's needs".

İpek is described as leading from the front, with "wide-ranging experience" which "translates into perceptive counsel and well-executed enforcement campaigns." IAM Patent 1000 describes Gökçe and Ezgi as holding "a panoramic understanding of IP matters."

The annual IAM Patent 1000 awards identify market leading individuals and firms for various aspects of patent law and practice, located in more than 40 jurisdictions around the world.
