

MOROĞLU ARSEVEN

Specializing in dispute resolution, Nilsu Nariç is involved in all stages of arbitration and state court proceedings. She works in litigation, international investment and commercial arbitration, and alternative dispute settlement processes, including mediation, with a particular focus on commercial disputes and disputes arising from sales contracts, contracts of work and distributorship. She also conducts legal research in these areas and provides consultancy services to the clients.

In addition, Nariç is interested in other legal fields such as consumer law and inheritance law.

Having completed her master's degree in arbitration in Paris, Nariç continues to participate in various educational programs, particularly in the field of arbitration, both domestically and internationally.
