

Turkish Competition Board Decided to Conduct an Investigation Against Hepsiburada.com

27 Aug 2019

Turkish Competition Board ("Board") decided to conduct an investigation to Anka Mobil Tedarik A.?. and D-Market Elektronik Hizmetleri ve Ticaret A.?. (hepsiburada.com) for violation of article 4 (restrictive trade practices and concerted practices) and article 6 (abuse of dominance) of the Law Number 4054 on the Protection of Competition (the "Law").

As a result of the preliminary investigation carried out on the alleged breach of the Law by the most favored customer clauses, discrimination, restriction of intra-brand competition, refusal to supply and maintenance of the resale price, the Board decided to conduct an investigation to these two companies, on 10 July 2019.
